

Dawn R. Harris
dharris@kearsleyschools.org

OBJECTIVE

Continuing professional employment in a challenging environment where I can help students and teachers improve student performance through the use of technology.

EDUCATION

Michigan State University, East Lansing, MI Masters in Educational Technology	G.P.A. 4.0	Expected Graduation December 2012
Marygrove College, Detroit, MI Masters in the Art of Teaching	4.0	April, 2003
University of Michigan-Flint, Flint, MI Elementary Education Certification	3.8	April, 2000
Oakland University, Rochester, MI B.S. Human Resources Development	3.4	April, 1982

CERTIFICATION

State of Michigan Professional Education Certificate

- Educational Technology (NP)
- Middle School 6-8, Mathematics (EX) and Language Arts (BX)
- Elementary K – 5 All subjects
- K – 8, self-contained classroom, all subjects

EXPERIENCE

TEACHER

Kearsley Community Schools, Flint, MI

Teach 8th grade Career and Technology courses at Armstrong Middle School. Develop middle school technology curriculum to bolster student achievement, technology integration, and school improvement. Also taught 5th grade all subjects at Dowdall Elementary.

Additional responsibilities include or have included:

- School Improvement Co-Chair
- District-Wide Technology Committee
- Intervention Program for Success (IPS) Teacher
- ACT Explore Test Administrator
- School Improvement Reading Committee
- Student Senate Adviser
- Ameritech Academy Team Member
- PBS Committee (Positive Behavior Support)
- KEA Area Representative
- Bridges to the Future Program Teacher

2000 – present

CHEER COACH

Kearsley Community Schools, Flint, MI

Coached Armstrong Middle School 20 member Competitive Cheer and 24 member Sideline Cheer Squads. Received National Cheerleading Association (NCA) Certification. Used strong knowledge of cheerleading techniques and safe practices to train and supervise the performance of the cheerleaders during practices, summer camps, and performances at competitions, games, and other community events. Developed new routines to be performed by the cheerleaders and motivated the team to give their best during performances. 2006 - 2012

INSTRUCTIONAL TECHNOLOGY SPECIALIST

Flushing Community Schools, Flushing, MI

Set-up, managed, and maintained elementary computer labs. Hired and trained lab personnel. Implemented before and after school math and literacy Title 1/At-Risk Programs. Served as school newspaper adviser. 1993 - 2000

INTERNET
INSTRUCTOR

Genesee Intermediate School District, Flint, MI

Taught web page design workshops to educators. Summer 1998

PROGRAM COORDINATOR

University of Michigan-Flint, Flint, MI

Office of Extension and Continuing Education. 1984 – 1989

REFERENCES

Available upon request